Dear Parents,

In anticipation of Halloween, I thought it would be important to share some school guidelines and expectations for the day. Halloween will be a full day of school with regular instruction. Please note that appropriate costumes are permitted in school on Halloween. The school's schedule will be modified to provide teachers with time towards the end of the school day to engage students in various activities.

Please take a moment to review the following costume guidelines with your child:

- No masks, or replicas of weapons are allowed.
- Costumes should not make any reference to drugs, alcohol or sexually explicit images.
- Costumes must cover the back, midriff, and shoulders.
- With regard to lengths of skirts, dresses, and shorts, the "fingertip rule" will be used to determine appropriateness.

I thank you in advance for helping us to make Halloween fun and safe for all. Feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Mark Daniels
