Join us for a discussion with panelists from diverse cultures and races to address The Intersectionality of Race, Culture and Life.

Professionals from a variety of fields including business, medical, law enforcement, and education will share their life experiences from their unique perspectives and personal experiences.

Each session is geared toward either the elementary, middle, or high school level to address the following topics:

Introduction to Social Justice, Culturally Affirming Literature, and Having Conversations with Your Child.

Participants will have an opportunity to explore two of the three topics.
